	Case No. 2:10-cv-00106-LRH-PA

Disclosure	and discovery activity in the above-captioned action	(the "Action") are likely to involve produc	tion of confidential, proprietary, or private information	n for which special protection from p	ablic disclosure and from use for any purpose other th	an prosecuting this litigation would b	e warranted. Accordingly, plaintiffs Oracle America,	Inc. ("Oracle America"), Oracle USA, Inc.	("Oracle USA"), and Oracle International Corporation	n (collectively, "Oracle") and the defendant	s Rimini Street, Inc. and Seth Ravin (collectively, "Ri	mini Street" and, together with Oracle, the "	Parties") hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to e	enter the following Stipulated Protect	ive Order ("Protective Order"). The Parties acknowle	edge that this Protective Order does not co	nfer blanket protections on all disclosures or response	s to discovery and that the protection it a	ffords extends only to the limited information or items	s that are entitled under the applicable leg	al principles to treatment as confidential. The Parties	further acknowledge that this Protective Or	der creates no entitlement to file confidential informat	ion under seal in connection with a	dispositive motion, and that the parties will follow the	e procedures of this Court with regard to fili	ng documents under seal in connection with dispositiv	re motions.
It is hereb	y ORDERED as follows:
1. Th	is Protective Order shall be applicable to and govern a	all depositions, documents, inforr	nation or things produced by a Party or third party in c	connection with this litigation in respo	nse to requests for production of documents, requests	for inspections of things, answers to interro	gatories, responses to requests for admissions, answer	rs to deposition questions and all other disco	overy taken pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Production	cedure, as well as testimony adduce	d at trial, matters in evidence, and other information (l	nereinafter, "Discovery Material") that the	e Disclosing Party designates as "Confidential Informa	ation" or "Highly Confidential Infor	rmation – Attorneys' Eyes Only."
2. An	y non-party to this Action may designate any Discove	ery Material produced by it, whether pursua	nt to subpoena or by agreement, as "Confidential Info	rmation" or "Highly Confidential Info	rmation – Attorneys' Eyes Only" pursuant to the terms	s of this Protective Order, upon such non-pa	rty's execution of a Declaration of Compliance with the	his Protective Order substantially in th	e form attached to this Protective Order as Exhibit A.	A Party (or, if Case No. 2:10-cv-00106-LRH-PAL

- 1 applicable, non-party) designating Discovery Material as "Confidential Information" or "Highly 2 Confidential Information – Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall be referred to for purposes of this 3 Protective Order as the "Designating Party." Any Party (or, if applicable, non-party) receiving 4 Discovery Material designated as "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential 5 Information – Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall be referred to for purposes of this Protective Order as 6 the "Receiving Party." Counsel for any Designating Party may designate any Discovery 7 Material as "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes 8 Only" under the terms of this Protective Order only if such counsel in good faith believes that 9 such Discovery Material contains such information and is subject to protection under Federal 10 Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c). The designation by any Designating Party of any Discovery 11 Material as "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys' Eyes 12 Only" shall constitute a representation that an attorney for the Designating Party reasonably 13 believes there is a valid basis for such designation. 14 3. For purposes of this Protective Order, "Confidential Information" shall include all 15 non-public information or matter related to: financial or business plans or projections; 16 acquisition offers or expressions of interest; proposed strategic transactions or other business 17 combinations; compensation plans; proprietary technical information and specifications; current 18 or future business and marketing information, plans, and strategies; studies or analyses by 19 internal or outside experts; customer information, data or lists; confidential financial data or 20 results; tax data; confidential information regarding assets and liabilities; valuation analyses; 21 competitive analyses; confidential personnel information; personal financial information; 22 personal information subject to protection under California or Nevada law; or other 23 commercially or personally sensitive or proprietary information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, 24 Confidential Information shall not mean information or documents produced or disclosed that are 25 or become, without violating this Protective Order, and apart from production or disclosure in 26 connection with this action, a matter of public record or publicly available by law or otherwise. 27 4. For purposes of this Protective Order, "Highly Confidential Information" shall 28
 - include only extremely sensitive, highly confidential, non-public information, consisting either

1	of trade secrets or other highly confidential documents related to current or future business plans
2	protocols or strategies, the disclosure of which to the Receiving Parties or non-parties (other than 3	the Designating Party) would be likely to cause competitive or business injury to the Designating
4	Party (other than injury to the Designating Party's position in this Action). Highly Confidential
5	Information shall be designated as "Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys' Eyes Only" or 6	"Highly Confidential Information – AEO" and the use and disclosure of such information shall 7	be restricted as set forth below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Highly Confidential Information 8	shall not mean information or documents produced or disclosed that are or become, without 9	violating this Protective Order, and apart from production or disclosure in connection with this 10	action, a matter of public record or publicly available by law or otherwise.
11	5. Any Discovery Material designated as "Confidential Information" or "Highly 12	Confidential Information – Attorneys' Eyes Only," whether such information is provided orally
13	or by a document or in electronic form, shall be maintained as set forth in the Protective Order,
14	and shall not be disclosed to any person or entity, except as permitted in the Protective Order.
15	6. All Discovery Material, whether or not filed or lodged with the Court, that a 16	Designating Party contends constitutes "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential
17	Information" shall be designated by the Designating Party as follows:
18	a. Documents or other tangible Discovery Material shall, at the time of their 19	production, be designated by stamping or labeling the same with the legend "Confidential
20	Information" or "Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys' Eyes Only" on each page of a 21	document or material containing such information.
22	b. Documents or other tangible Discovery Material produced by a non-party 23	to this Action shall be so designated by the Designating Party by providing written notice, as 24	soon as reasonably practicable, to counsel of record for the Parties (and to counsel of record, if 25	any, for the non-party who produced such Documents or other tangible Discovery Material) of 26	the Bates numbers or number range or other sufficiently definite description of the documents to 27	be designated as "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' 28	Eyes Only." Counsel shall not permit documents or materials produced by a non-party to be distributed to persons beyond those specified in Paragraph 9 or 10 below until those documents

2 or materials have been designated in accordance with this Paragraph. 3 Deposition testimony shall be designated "Confidential Information" or 4 "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" (i) at the taking of the deposition by a 5 statement on the record, by counsel at the time of such disclosure, or (ii) by written notice sent to 6 counsel of record for all Parties within five (5) business days after receiving a copy of the final, 7 hard copy transcript thereof, identifying the specific pages thereof designated as "Confidential 8 Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only." In both of the 9 foregoing instances, counsel for the Designating Party shall direct that the legend "Confidential 10 Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" be affixed to the 11 portions of the original and all copies of the transcript. Counsel shall treat deposition transcripts 12 as "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" in their entirety until the relevant 13 period for the designation has expired. The Parties may modify this procedure for any particular 14 deposition through agreement on the record at such depositions without further order of the 15 Court. 16 d. Non-documentary and non-testimonial material, such as oral statements, 17 shall be designated as "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information -18 Attorneys' Eyes Only" at the time of disclosure and promptly confirmed in writing. 19 7. Inadvertent failure to designate Discovery Material as "Confidential Information" 20 or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall not constitute a waiver of 21 such claim and may be corrected by prompt supplemental written notice designating such 22 Discovery Material as "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information -23 Attorneys' Eyes Only" in a manner consistent with Paragraph 6. The Party receiving such 24 supplemental written notice shall thereafter mark and treat materials so designated as 25 "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" as the 26 case may be, and such materials shall be fully subject to this Protective Order as if they had been initially so designated. A person disclosing Discovery Material that is subsequently designated 27 28 as "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall Case No. 2:10-cv-00106-LRH-PAL

2	recipients not entitled to receive such Discovery Material under the terms of this Protective
3	Order and prevent further disclosures except as authorized under the terms of this Protective 4	Order.

6	as the Court may otherwise order, all Discovery Material marked or otherwise identified as 7	"Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" and 8	received by any Receiving Party pursuant to this Protective Order: (a) shall be disclosed only to 9	such persons and in such manner as set forth in this Protective Order; (b) shall be used solely for 10	the purposes of preparation for trial, trial of and/or appeal from this Action and no other; and 11	(c) shall not be used by the Receiving Party for any other purposes, including, without limitation,
12	any business or commercial purpose. The prohibitions on the use of Confidential Information 13	and Highly Confidential Information as set forth in this Protective Order shall survive the 14	termination of this Action.
15	9. Counsel for a Receiving Party may disclose or make available any Discovery 16	Material designated as "Confidential Information" and/or any information derived from such 17	Discovery Material only to the following persons:
18	a. Counsel to the Parties in this Action (outside counsel, of counsel, and in-
19	house counsel, including members of the outside counsel firms, associate attorneys, contract

26	matter experts) ("Consultants and Vendors"), provided that no Discovery Material designated as

h. Any Party wishing to use documents of an opposing Party designated either "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys Eyes Only" at the deposition of a third-party witness must give the opposing Party at least 48 hours written notice. The written notice must provide (i) a list of the documents by Bates number that the requesting Party wishes to use in the third-party deposition; and (ii) a complete copy set of the documents that are to be shown to a third party deponent. The third-party deponent must be asked to execute a Declaration of Compliance substantially in the form attached to this Protective Order as Exhibit A, acknowledging that the deponent will treat documents designated "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys Eyes Only" in accordance with the Protective Order and that the third-party deponent agrees to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order. If before testifying the third-party deponent refuses to sign the Declaration of Compliance Counsel for the Party seeking to depose the witness shall (i) provide the third-party deponent a copy of this Protective Order; (ii) state on the record that the Discovery Material about which the third-party deponent is to be questioned is subject to the terms of this Protective Order; and (iii) inform the third-party deponent on the record that unauthorized disclosure of the information contained in the Discovery Material may constitute a contempt of this Court.

12. "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" Discovery Material may be provided to retained experts and/or expert consultants assisting counsel for the Parties in this Action (excluding Consultants and Vendors), and only to the extent necessary for the expert or expert consultant to prepare a written opinion, to prepare to testify, or to assist counsel in the prosecution or defense of this Action, provided that such expert or expert consultant: (i) is not currently, or has not in the past year from the date of this Protective Order, been a competitor of the non-retaining Party, or a partner, director, officer, employee or other affiliate of such a competitor; (ii) is using said "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" Discovery Material solely in connection with this Action; and (iii) signs a Declaration of Compliance in the form attached to this Protective Order as Exhibit A, agreeing in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Protective Order, consenting to the jurisdiction of the Court for enforcement of this Protective Order, and agreeing not to disclose or use any "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" Discovery Material in a manner or for purposes other than those permitted by this Protective Order. Counsel for the Party using the expert or expert consultant shall be responsible for obtaining the signed undertaking and retaining the original, executed copy. At least five (5) business days prior to providing an expert or expert consultant with any information that has been designated as "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" by the other side, Counsel must first identify the expert in writing to opposing counsel. This written identification shall include a current resume or curriculum vitae, and shall be served by electronic mail, in addition to overnight mail. Should the opposing Party or any non-party object to the disclosure of its "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" to the designated expert or expert consultant, it shall provide written notice within five (5) business days. The objecting Party or non-party shall meet and confer with the Party identifying the expert on that objection within two (2) business days of the written objection being served on counsel. If the meet and confer does not resolve the dispute, the parties agree to expedited briefing. The objecting Party or non-party shall file a motion within two court days of the meet and confer. The Party identifying the expert shall file any opposition within three court days of filing of the opening brief, and no reply will be filed.

Both briefs shall be served by electronic mail, in addition, to overnight mail. The Parties agree that Exhibit A shall not be filed with the Court and shall be deemed as "Confidential Information" within the meaning of this Protective Order.
No "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys" Eyes Only" Discovery Material may be provided to retained experts and/or expert consultants unless and until such person has executed a Declaration of Compliance substantially in the form attached to this Protective Order as Exhibit A, and such Declaration of Compliance has been 10 Case No. 2:10-cv-00106-LRH-PAL

1	served on counsel for all Parties. Further, upon service of a written objection to an expert or
2	expert consultant pursuant to this Paragraph 12, no information designated as "Confidential
3	Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" by the objecting
4	Party or non-party may be disclosed to the expert or expert consultant subject to objection
5	unless and until the time to file a motion with the Court has expired or the Court has ruled on 6	the motion.
7	13. This Protective Order has no effect upon, and shall not apply to, the Parties' use
8	of their own Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information for any purpose.
9	Nothing in this Protective Order shall: (i) prevent a Designating Party from disclosing its own
10	"Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only"
11	Discovery Material to officers, directors, employees, agents, or advisors, including investment 12	bankers and accountants, of the Designating Party; or (ii) impose any restrictions on the use or 13	disclosure by a Party of documents, materials, or information designated "Confidential
14	Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only" if such documents, 15	materials, or information were both lawfully obtained by and lawfully retained in the possession 16	of such Party independently of the discovery proceedings in this Action.
17	14. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured
18	after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party or non-party may not file in the public 19	record in this action any "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - 20	Attorneys' Eyes Only" Discovery Material. A Party or non-party that seeks to file under seal
21	any "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information - Attorneys' Eyes Only"
22	Discovery Material must comply with the applicable procedures of this Court. The envelope 23	containing documents sought to be filed under seal must indicate that the documents are being 24	filed pursuant to this Protective Order and that the envelope shall not be opened absent further 25	order of the Court.
26	15. The inadvertent production of any Discovery Material shall be without prejudice
27	to any claim that such Discovery Material is privileged or protected from discovery as work-
28	product or by reason of any other applicable privilege or immunity, including without limitation 11 Case No. 2:10-cv-00106-LRH-PAL the attorney-client privilege, and no Party or non-party shall be held to have waived any otherwise applicable privilege or protection by such inadvertent production. If the claim of inadvertent production is made pursuant to this Paragraph with respect to information then in the custody of another Party or non-party, such Party or non-party shall promptly return to the claiming Party or non-party that material as to which the claim of inadvertent production has been made and all copies thereof, and the receiving Party or non-party shall not use such information for any purpose, expect as provided by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B). Where the Parties agree in writing with regard to particular requested materials, a Designating Party may provide those requested materials for initial examination by the Requesting Party in connection with the Action without waiving any privilege or protection in this case or any other Federal or State proceeding.

16. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a later significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Receiving Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the Designating Party discloses the designation.
a. A Receiving Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) with counsel for the Designating Party. In conferring, the challenging Receiving Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A challenging Receiving Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it first has engaged in this meet and confer process.
b. A Receiving Party that elects to press a challenge to a confidentiality designation after considering the justification offered by the Designating Party may file and serve a motion in compliance with all applicable Federal and Local rules that identifies the 1	channenged material and sets form in detail the basis for the channenge. Each such motion must be

2	accompanied by a competent declaration that affirms that the movant has complied with the meet
3	and confer requirements imposed in the preceding subparagraph and that (to the extent possible)
4	sets forth with specificity the justification for the confidentiality designation that was given by 5	the Designating Party in the meet and confer dialogue.
6	c. The burden of proof in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 7	Designating Party. Until the Court rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to afford the 8	material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Designating Party's 9	designation. This provision applies only to challenge proceedings, and shall not be construed to 10	affect the burden of proof for a motion to seal.
